Craig Vaughn lived in 5 other states before moving to Texas for a full time job at KPUR AM/FM in the late 90's. Back then Craig was making commercials, working the station audio for high school sports, and co-hosting a sports talk show. Later Craig spent 8 years on Amarillo's Classic Rock station The Kar. Craig is best known for bringing Texas Red Dirt country music to Amarillo on KPUR 95.7 and 99.7 KBCY! He's quickly become the authority on Texas Red Dirt music in Texas frequently interviewing some of it's top stars like Kevin Fowler, Aaron Watson, Casey Donahew, and Robert Earl Keen while also helping young local artists pursue their dreams of becoming the next big thing. In 2017 Craig won the Texas Regional Radio Station of the year for Large Markets. In his free time Craig likes to spend time with his wife and daughter usually doing activities at his church where he's heavily involved. And of course seeing as many Texas Red Dirt concerts as he can.
